INTRODUCTION

This access guide has been published to benefit disabled people – locals and visitors – and anyone who needs to know what facilities are available. This is just a guide, a statement of access as it is, at the time of writing.

Assistance, in the production of this guide, from Kiltearn Community Council, staff at Highland Council and Ross-shire Voluntary Action and all the businesses included has been much appreciated. Each business was visited and assessed by members of Ross & Cromarty Disability Access Group. For further information on any of the premises covered please contact them directly.

Ross & Cromarty Disability Access Group is not responsible for the accuracy of any of the information given. For further information on general access issues please contact:
